PITTSBURGH TO HOST ‘SUPER DUAL ONE’ OVER THANKSGIVING WEEKEND

Great Falls, VA—The Champions League of American Wrestling, LLC (CLAW) will host SUPER DUAL ONE on November 29 in Pittsburgh, PA at UPMC Cooper Fieldhouse at Duquesne University. The championship meet for wrestling’s professional league features the Cradle City Cicadas and Leopards, winners of the Liberty and Justice Divisions, respectively. Both teams are undefeated and feature some of the biggest names in the sport, including World Champion and Penn State legend Zain Retherford of the Cicadas.

Commissioner Tom Houck stated, “We are thrilled to hold this historic event in a major hotbed of wrestling. Not only will fans be treated to elite wrestling, but we are putting on a show that will entertain those experiencing the sport for the very first time. This is a wonderful addition to the holiday weekend.”

In addition to the main event, activities include the Red Carpet Show at 1:30 pm and Superstar Pro Clinic led by CLAW athletes Peyton Hall and Reece Humphrey at 2 pm. Hall is a 3x NCAA All-American from West Virginia University, and Humphrey is a multiple time world team member and 2x All-American at the Ohio State University. Pre-Match Festivities in the arena begin at 4 pm, followed by the main event at 4:30 pm.

Tickets for this event can be purchased at www.wrestleclaw.com/tickets.html.

CLAW is a professional wrestling league featuring six teams managed by celebrity General Managers. Modified rules increase action, scoring, strategy and fan engagement. CLAW matches are streamed on various platforms, including CLAW TOTAL ACCESS (www.clawtotalaccess.com), FloWrestling, and Lightsout Sports. Follow CLAW on Instagram, X, Facebook, Tik Tok and YouTube at @CLAW_Wrestling.
